THE POLITICO-FARMER.

He wants a billion dollars, sir, struck right off on the press.
He wants a billion dollars quick, and not a copper less;
He wants to turn his cabbages, his taters and his oats,
And other products of his farm, right into Treasury notes;
He wants to down monopolies and men who money loan,
And run the business so he'll have a big one of his own;
He wants a constitution that will give his kind a chance,
But doesn't want to work to get a new seat in his pants;
He wants to go to Washington to gnash his teeth and wail,
But doesn't want a button to replace the shingle nail
That fastens up his galluses; nor does he want the facts
Which prove he's not the only man who has to pay a tax.
To sum it up, this statesman wants—as others of his class—
The whole United States to be a monumental ass.

Only twenty-one inches of water at Chattanooga, and navigation on the Tennessee "choked."

The following are the coal shipments from Pittsburgh, by river, for the past three months. The amount of coal to leave Pittsburgh the first water will reach about 8,000,000 bushels. The shipments to Cincinnati and Louisville, in bushels, were:

YEAR.	July.	August.	Sept.	Total.
1888.....	12,400,000	5,094,000	1,693,000	19,277,000
1889.....	2,576,000	90,000	None.	2,666,000
1890.....	No ship.	4,282,000	4,611,000	9,093,000
1891.....	7,348,000	5,755,000	None.	11,093,000
1892.....	3,358,000	None.	None.	3,358,000

The above shows that no coal was shipped by river during August and September.

'SQUIRE (?) BRADFORD'S WORK.

How Much Longer Will He Run the Marrying Machine at Aberdeen?

A LEDGER reporter yesterday called on 'Squire (?) Harrison Bradford at his office in Aberdeen, who complacently stepped into the long-worn matrimonial shoes of the late far-famed Massie Beasley.

Mr. Bradford was somewhat reluctant about conversing relative to the business in which he is at present engaged, simply saying "yes" when he was informed that the press of the whole country was questioning his legal authority, appearing to be indifferent as to the consequences which result from the union of those whom he purports to unite in legal marriage.

By the several different men who have been engaged in the business fully 12,000 couples have been united in the solemn bonds of marriage, being almost exclusively runaway parties, many of whom were too young to secure license.

Many an innocent, loving girl, out of her teens, has been lured from the parental roof by whisky-soaked tobacco-stained old bums who have no more principal than a common cur, to live a life of misery, dejection and shame.

As we have been informed Mr. Bradford has no more authority to solemnize a marriage than a jackass, he not even being a Justice of the Peace. Is it not about time the Ohio Legislature was taking some action in this matter? Surely the people will not remain indifferent much longer and allow this misery-producing machine to run for time immemorial, spreading a boundless sea of unhappiness throughout the land.

Personally we have nothing to say about Mr. Bradford. Since he has been running the matrimonial machine he has done a land office business, having married more than seventy couples in four weeks, thus breaking the record of all his predecessors.

The sooner this thing is quashed the better it will be for the present generation as well as for the future ones.

Married at Aberdeen.

The following couples were married at Aberdeen yesterday by 'Squire (?) Bradford:

□ Andre Evans and Minnie B. Hopkins of Nicholas county.

Charles E. Jolly and Linnie A. Evans of Nicholas county.

Sanford C. McCord and Lou Shephard of Fleming county.

William H. Jackson and Riddle B. Robins of Fleming county.

CITIZENS who were in the city Tuesday and who were able to go to the polls to register and failed to do so cannot now be registered. Those who were necessarily absent from the city or who were detained by sickness can make affidavits to the County Clerk and have their names placed on the registration books.

THE report of the recent encounter of Colonel W. J. Worthington, Dr. A. J. W. Sellards and J. J. Calvin of Greenup with a catamount, telegraphed to the Cincinnati papers and copied throughout this part of Kentucky, turns out to be as false as the Free-trade parrot cry that the Tariff is a tax. It used to be that The Enquirer had a "clinch" on all the sensational lies, but now The Commercial Gazette and Post divide the honors.

VERONA JARREAU, the popular versatile comedienne and songstress, is now starring for the second season in "Starlight," which, during the vacation, has been reconstructed and enriched with much new material. We hope to see her in Maysville if she has as good support as she had on her last visit.

Very True.

The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is steadily growing from the fact that all who give it a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly.—Wagely & Smead, Druggists, Newton, Iowa. Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

Condition of the Small Crops Throughout Kentucky Up to Yesterday.

The average temperature of the week was about four degrees above the normal, and much more than the usual amount of sunshine resulted from the generally cloudless weather which prevailed.

No rain is reported, except light showers from the Eastern sections of the state. Apart from the heavy general rains of the 13th and 14th ult., there has been practically no precipitation of consequence in the state for more than a month. This fact has rendered the soil very dry and consequently unfit for plowing and seeding, which work has been greatly delayed. Fall pastures are as a rule very poor, owing to the same cause. The greatest present need of farmers is an abundant rainfall.

While the conditions described have been unfavorable to the work mentioned, they have greatly hastened the maturity of corn and tobacco. The former crop is now practically safe and much of it is already cut.

The prospects for tobacco have improved materially, and everything indicates a crop of the finest quality, though it is probable that the amount will fall short of the average. About three-fourths of it has been cut, and it is thought that at the latest the entire crop will be safely housed within the next ten days. The lateness of the season makes the danger from frost greater, but the comparatively small portion of the crop now exposed, even if it is damaged cannot materially affect the general character of the yield.

Yesterday's Ledger

Was a good paper, and it will continue to be a good paper throughout the year. It will give you all the news every day at the low price of 25 cents a month, either by carrier or by mail. Now is the time to subscribe.

THE Labadie-Rowell Company at the Washington Opera-house Saturday night, October 8th, in "Ingomar." Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

A COVINGTON Sunday-school teacher who had requested that each child, as it dropped its contribution into the box, should give an appropriate Scriptural quotation, was very much shocked at the readiness of one little miss who held her penny over the box and very deliberately dropped it in, with the remark: "A fool and his money is soon parted."

HENSHAW and Ten Broeck and the "Nabobs" will appear at the Washington Opera-house on next Monday night, October 10th. We have no doubt that the excellent performance given by this company in this city a few weeks ago will secure for them a crowded house on their return visit. Prices, Gallery 25, Balcony 35, Dress Circle 50, Parquet 75 cents. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

BRUTUS J. CLAY, one of the wealthiest men of Madison county, and son of General Cassius M. Clay, has purchased the handsome property of the late Dr. J. P. Herndon of Richmond for $10,000, and has donated the same for the purpose of establishing an Infirmary at that place. It is to be called the Pattie Field-Clay Infirmary, as a memorial to his wife, who recently died.

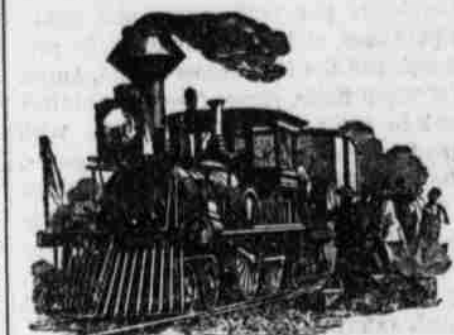

A REPORT has reached THE LEDGER of one of the most fiendish and outrageous practices ever perpetrated among decent and respectable people, the scene of which is in the Fifth Ward. The crime of which the participants are guilty is one of the most disgraceful in the dark-stained history of crime, and would not be tolerated in a Pagan community. The people are indifferent to the sacredness of home and possess neither self-respect nor common decency, and should be driven into the Ohio river. We are requested to announce that they may expect a visit from White Caps soon unless there is a speedy reformation.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

H. C. Boughton, Superintendent of the C. and O., is in the city to-day.

Frank Farrington, the O. and M. Car Accountant who sketched out from Cincinnati, has written to the railroads from Buffalo.

Clifford Stevenson of Aberdeen, formerly bill clerk at the freight depot in this city, and lately cashier at Brighton Station, Cincinnati, has accepted a similar position with the N. N. and M. V. at Memphis, Tenn.

The annual meeting of the Maysville and Big Sandy Road, the Cincinnati Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio, was held at Covington Tuesday, 145,000 shares out of a total of 150,000 being represented. The following Directors were unanimously elected: M. E. Ingalls, C. P. Huntington, C. H. Coster, R. J. Cross, R. C. Rhoner, W. H. Jackson, N. R. Johnson, J. C. Davis and W. P. Anderson.

As the K. C. train which arrives at Maysville at 10 a. m. was nearing Licking bridge yesterday morning, a woman was seen standing near the middle of the bridge with a jug in her hand. The engine could not be stopped before running on to the bridge. The ties project over the trestle work considerable and the lady had presence of mind enough to step out on the end of one of them, and escaped without injury. She thought nothing of the narrow escape, but complained about the jug which was knocked from her hand and broken to pieces.

THE tobacco is about all under cover in Mason county.

THERE are now sixteen prisoners in the Bourbon County Jail.

THERE's a move on foot at Flemingsburg to establish a stock yard and pens for the sale of cattle on County Court Day.

THE Republicans of Carlisle Precinct are called to meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to nominate a candidate for Constable.

POSTMASTER H. B. BRYSON and Miss Minnie Mann were married at Carlisle Tuesday afternoon. THE LEDGER extends its heartiest good wishes to the happy couple.

MISS MATTIE THOMPSON, the well known and beautiful daughter of Hon. Phil B. Thompson, is lying dangerously ill at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York, of typhoid fever.

THE slow-going town of Newport is rearing up on her hind legs and howling over the introduction of electric cars. Maysville has had 'em for a year or two, and thinks nothing about it.

THE barn of Mrs. A. W. Blair's farm about three miles from Carlisle burned Monday night about 10 o'clock. William Soper has the farm rented, and sustained a loss of about $350. No insurance on barn or contents.

TANDY QUISENBERRY, an old citizen of Clark county, committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a shotgun. He was a veteran of the Mexican war and for a long time has been partially insane. He owned considerable property.

E. C. HARRIS of Carlisle will wed Miss Jessie Trimble, daughter of J. A. Trimble, North Middletown, Wednesday afternoon, October 19th, at 4 o'clock at the North Middletown Christian Church. They will make their future home in Carlisle.

PATRICK HICKEY, who recently died in Cincinnati, was the father of a remarkable and very religious family. His four sons are now officiating as priests, and one of his daughters is a member of a Notre Dame Convent at Philadelphia. His remaining daughter is a stenographer.

ago against the new tion possible courts to be. cently Judge validity of the of this county and pealed to the super pines anticipated, that the county author main passive.

The first intimation to came Wednesday in a levy of deputies on ten locomotives, as we the electric light plant at the Uni station, the property of the Union Rail way Co., for taxes due the city. Then the deputies swooped down on the yards of other roads centering here and in rapid succession levies were made on the rolling stock of the Big Four, the Pennsylvania Central, the L. D. & W. and other companies. Immediately the companies hustled around for bonds, and the Union Railway Co. appeared before Judge Taylor, of the superior court, with a petition to restrain the county treasurer from proceeding with the seizing and holding of company property.

At a late hour the court granted the injunction, expressing the opinion that the assessment of the company for taxation by the state tax commissioners was illegal because the Union Railway Co. is not a concern operated for profit. In rendering this opinion there is an intimation that the same reasons for granting an injunction against the county treasurer would not apply to companies operated for profit. All the companies whose property was seized upon gave bond.

INSANE FROM JOY.

A Young Lady Meets Her Long Absent Mother and Loses Her Mind.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 6.—A sad story comes from Ashley, this county. John Barney was divorced from his wife twelve years ago. He at once went West, taking his five-year-old daughter with him. The divorced wife continued to reside at Ashley. She always expressed a desire to have her daughter with her. She wrote appealing letters to her divorced husband to send their child east. The husband, however, was obdurate. One day last week he relented and sent her east. She arrived in Ashley Saturday. Her mother was at the depot to meet her daughter. Overjoyed at meeting her mother the girl became violently insane. P. M. Conniff took the young lady to the Danville Insane asylum Wednesday. The demented girl is very pretty.

A DOUBLE ATTEMPT

At Self-Destruction in Columbus, O.—A Suicide Club.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 6.—A double attempt at self-destruction Wednesday night led to the discovery that a Suicide club has been formed among the lovers of the women of ill-fame in the notorious precincts of South Seventh street. Mrs. Joe Keller and Rose Cole, members of the demi-monde, took morphine with suicidal intent in Harry Bell's saloon at Seventh and Donaldson streets. They were pumped out, and will recover. Both of them claim that the act was prompted by a decree of a new association to which they belong, two of whose members are to end their lives together whenever the club decides that circumstance warrant such action. The circumstances in the present case indicate that the women also belong to the Wheel club.

FALSE ENTRIES

Caused a Shortage of Six Thousand—A Bank Teller Arrested.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 6.—Obadiah C. Vosbett, paying teller of the Smyrna national bank, has been arrested charged with making false entries in the bank's books, records and statements with intent to deceive the officers thereof. He was brought to this city and given a hearing before Commissioner Smith, who held him in $5,000 bail for court. At the hearing Vosbett pleaded guilty to making the false entries, but denied that he had received any of the bank's money, and claimed that these entries were simply to cover up errors. The amount of the shortage is stated to be $5,000.

Hangman's Day in South Carolina. COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 6.—Friday will be harvest day for the hangman in South Carolina. Two murderers and two murderers will leave this world by the rope route. A fifth, Gus Deering, an Edgewood colored man, who killed a fellow-workman, had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. Tillman.

The Defendants Win.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—In the suit of Congressman James Holden against ex-Judge Stevenson Burke and others, and the Columbus, Toledo and Hooking Valley railroad, which involves about $8,000,000, Justice Ingraham handed down a decision Wednesday morning giving judgment for the defendants.

The Fight Declared Off. SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 6.—The McHugh-Geraghty contest will not take place Thursday night. All bets have been withdrawn and the sale of seats stopped. Geraghty is suffering with typhoid fever, produced by training down too rapidly.

Jack Gentry Killed. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 6.—Jack Gentry, a notorious outlaw, was killed near Covington, Va., by Sheriff Byers and two deputies. Gentry was wanted for four murders recently committed, and was killed while resisting officers.

Mrs. Harrison Exchanged. WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Harrison passed a comfortable day's rest, fully as well as she has during any period in the past two weeks, although no perceptible change is reported in her condition Wednesday night.

Bank Run Ceasing.

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Oct. 6.—The run on the Second national bank is about over, and people are again making deposits.
